

Devil's Lake Vacation House

This was a first-time website for this retreat house venture. There was a focus on attractiveness, simplicity, and photos, photos, photos. Like many others have thought before, the idea was to get the website online to gain exposure. This site needs a strong personal connection so that the visitor really understands how enjoyment the owners of the retreat house have with the house.